APPLE TV+ HIGHLIGHTS

Source: Giant Spoon; Macworld May 6, 2019

Apple is said to be spending a couple billion dollars over 2018 and 2019 on the development of exclusive original programming relying on star power and book adaptations

- Two of the most notable adaptations include a remake of Steven Spielberg's Amazing Stories from the 80s, as well as a new Sesame Street program
- Jennifer Aniston, Reese Witherspoon, Octavia Spencer, Brie Larson, Chris Evans and Jason Momoa are a few of the announced stars
- Nearly half of the programs announced already are adaptations of best-selling books

Apple wants to have broad appeal with something for everyone - possibly including a Game of Thrones replacement

- Pachinko is based on Min Jin Lee's best-selling novel, which is being likened to Netflix's The Crown in its sophistication and budget
- Foundation is an adaptation of the Isaac Asimov trilogy with sprawling space narratives

The focus of the original content shifts away from reality and largely toward scripted dramas, comedies and documentaries

- Apple is staying almost entirely away from reality (aside from Carpool Karaoke and Planet of the Apps), alternative reality, and sports
- Scripted drama is heavy on the roster, with a number of sci-fi and fantasy themes
- Documentaries and docu-series make up a significant presence

DISNEY+ HIGHLIGHTS

Bundles Properties that Primarily Appeal to the Family Audience

- ✧ Properties from Lucasfilm, Marvel, Disney Animation/Pixar, Disney Channel, Disney Live Action, and National Geographic

Fox Content Inclusion

- ✧ All 30 seasons of The Simpsons will be on the streaming service

Both New and Classic Content

- ✧ Classic: Fantasia, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, Mary Poppins, Iron Man
 - ✧ Emphasizes feelings of nostalgia
- ✧ Some of the buzziest new content that is exciting fans for what is to come includes:
